

ESTABLISHED AUGUST 24, 1852.

The Intelligencer.

We print a very well written and sensible communication from a West Virginia lady in another column of to-day's paper. It is what we call a very genuine sort of an article, and any lady might well be proud to be the author of it. It does no less credit to her head than her heart.

There is no Democratic victory. It is the outlook of Republicans resolved to sound their protest against the wrecking policy which has been driving the party straight upon the breakers. The country is as strongly Republican as ever. There are just as many Republicans to-day as there were in 1860, and they will stand together in 1884.—Philadelphia Press.

The Cadiz Republican feels aggrieved at Mr. Beatty's fall, and says:

He is a large sum to Colleges, Academies, and the like, and a personal friend of the deceased with small distances. If Mr. Beatty had done for the city of Steubenville and for personal friends what he was so abundantly able to do, they would have kept his name in everlasting remembrance. As it is, his money has gone where it is not wanted, and will receive very little thanks for it.

Of course the Democrats will claim, as several times since they lost control of the government, that they have done everything by themselves and for themselves; and they are liable again, as heretofore, to find that they are deeply mistaken.

There is a profound popular distrust of the Democratic party, and we presume they will be able during the first session of the next Congress to put a wire upon the public apprehension.

The Republican party, divested of its third-termers and bosses, its dead-beats and robbers and its getting rid of them as fast as time can move) will be found to possess vast vital resources, and to be moving in the right direction in general affairs.—Pittsburgh Commercial of yesterday.

The New York Commercial Bulletin estimates the fire losses in this country and Canada last month, at $6,000,000. As compared with the corresponding month in previous years the figures are as follows: October, 1881, $11,700,000; 1880, $7,097,100; 1879, $1,745,800; 1878, $6,971,400; 1877, $5,450,000. Calling the loss in October, this year, $6,000,000, the average of the October fire wastage for the past six years is $7,200,000. From this showing, last month proved to be much more favorable for the underwriters than the average October of late years. The Bulletin says: Up to the close of September our estimate for the fire loss in the United States and Canada, for the nine months, was $67,500,000. Adding $6,000,000 for October, we have $73,500,000 for the ten months of 1882, which have elapsed. There are yet two months to hear from, and their report will settle for several insurance companies the question whether to withdraw from business or keep up the fight against fate, compared with previous years, for the ten months, January to October, inclusive, the figures of the current year are as follows: 1882, $73,500,000; 1881, $74,520,000; 1880, $67,282,100; 1879, $71,010,700; 1878, $75,000,000. It will be seen that 1882 has proved an exception in its exemplification of the carelessness of a people who keep on destroying their own and God's property at the average rate of $100,000,000 a year.

THE VICKSBURG CAMPAIGN.

A review of the work by the Philadelphia Press.

Washington, November 9.—The Philadelphia Press to-day gives much promise to a long review of Mr. Samuel R. Kelly's Vicksburg campaign. It betrays high praise upon the work. The following extract will illustrate the character of the review:

We are stripping away, day by day, the faded laurels and tawdry decorations which were thrown about men and events during and immediately after the war. As the years pass, we see the rough scaffolding upon which the figures of clay posed. It is comforting to remark that in this work men of great majesty proportions are not rather than diminish by the process of dissection. Lincoln, for example, stands out as a great figure, and his greatness is not diminished and cannot dim the imposing worth of his time, so the rigid scrutiny and comparison only serve to reveal him wiser, profounder, more sagacious and more legendary and unauthentic are cast aside.

This is the spirit and the effect of a remarkable little volume entitled "The Vicksburg Campaign," by Samuel Reed, a Western journalist of distinction, and a writer of uncommon vigor.

Though the work is limited in title to Vicksburg, Mr. Reed really completes the outline of General Grant's military career, by including a monograph which must be considered an early study of the Campaign of the ex-commander of the Union forces. The keynote of the work is struck in the dedication, wherein the author describes his studies "To American Volunteers, the best soldiers in the world, who showed the world of generalship, fought the great world through."

This is a striking assertion, but under certain modifications it will be manifestly, with a few great officers excepted, the keynote of the posterity. The purpose of the book is to show the great generalship of the Union forces, and to show the great generalship of the Union forces, and to show the great generalship of the Union forces.

THE FALL OPENINGS.

INDICATE DEMOCRATIC STYLES.

Will Prefall in Several States—Where Good Taste Prevalent Republican Colors are Much Sought After—For Further Political Fashions Consult Figures Below.

New York, November 9.—The New York Times says: Complete returns from the counties now being received increase the majority of Cleveland for Governor to 100,000, and the official vote will make the majority not under 200,000.

Des Moines, November 9.—The latest returns indicate that the Republicans have lost a number of Congressmen.

Des Moines, November 9.—The latest returns indicate that the Republicans have lost the following Congressmen: Farwell in the Second district; Updegraff in the Fourth; Wilson in the Fifth; and in the Ninth: the successful Democrats being Murphy, Weller, Frederick and Pusey. The Congressional delegation will therefore stand, Republicans, 7; Democrats, 4. In the last House there were 9 Republicans.

Des Moines, November 9.—Wilson, Republican, is elected to Congress in the Fifth district by 60 majority.

Des Moines, November 9.—Special to the State Register up to this hour, 11 p. m., give full returns in the Congressional districts heretofore in doubt. In the Fourth district, Weller, Republican, and Pusey, Democrat, are elected by 625 majority. In the Fifth district, Wilson, Republican, is elected by 63 majority. In the Ninth district, Pusey, Democrat, carried 7 of the 9 counties and is elected by a majority of 2,101. The majority of McDermott, Republican, in the first district, is 31,000. The Register's returns indicate a Republican majority on the State ticket of 30,000 or 31,000.

Kentucky.

Louisville, November 9.—Later returns have been received from eleven counties in the Tenth district, which give Matt Adams, Democrat, a majority of 140 over John D. White, Republican. Nine mountain counties remain to be heard from, in several of which there will be majorities operating as a tie-breaker. Both parties are claiming the district, but all estimates are more guesses, as no news can be had from the district mountain counties.

Omitting the Tenth district, the delegation of Kentucky is as follows: First district—James O. Turner, D. Second district—John E. Hays, D. Third district—John E. Hays, D. Fourth district—Thos. A. R. Hays, D. Fifth district—Albert J. Willis, D. Sixth district—John G. Carlisle, D. Seventh district—G. S. Blackburn, D. Eighth district—Phil B. Thompson, D. Ninth district—W. W. Colburn, D. Eleventh district—Frank Chaffant, D.

Mississippi.

Memphis, Tenn., November 9.—General James R. Chalmers, Independent Democratic candidate for Congress in the Second Mississippi district, opposing Van H. Manning, Democratic nominee, is in the city. In an interview he asserted that bulldozing was practiced in Tallahatchie county, where the election was prevented from being held under the pretense of fear of the small-pox, which deprived him of 500 votes, and one box in Bolivar county where the judges refused to hold the election, which lost to him 200 votes. Notwithstanding all these, he claims his election on the returns that have been made by 1,075 majority.

Jackson, Miss., November 9.—Unofficial returns and reports from trustworthy sources leave no doubt of the election of Chalmers over Manning, and the election of Van Eaton, Democrat, over Lynch—both of small majorities.

The New Governors.

Washington, D. C., November 9.—The returns received here show the election of the following Governors:

California—George Stoneman, D. Connecticut—Thos. M. Waller, D. Delaware—Chas. C. Stockley, R. Kansas—John P. St. John, R. Massachusetts—Benjamin F. Butler, D. Michigan—J. H. Jerome, R. Nebraska—Jas. W. Dawes, R. Nevada—Enoch S. Strahler, R. New Hampshire—W. S. Hale, R. New York—Grover Cleveland, D. Pennsylvania—R. E. Pattison, D. South Carolina—H. S. Thompson, D. Tennessee—W. R. Rife, D. Texas—John Ireland, D.

Massachusetts.

Boston, November 9.—The Journal says: It is written in the Book of Predictions at the State House that Governor Long will be chosen United States Senator to succeed Senator Hoar, whose term expires March 3, 1883. Lieutenant Governor Ames is booked as the successor of Congressman Long, and as his services will not be needed at Washington, there is no doubt that he will be chosen until December, 1883; it will depend upon the date of the election to fill the vacancy in the Second Congressional district, whether Ames will resign before the date of meeting of Congress. The resignation of Mr. Ames, however, could only be filled by a popular election, and is not likely to be made.

St. Paul, November 9.—The returns tabulated up to 3 o'clock this morning give the following majorities for Congressman White, Republican, First district, 284; Wakefield, Republican, Second district, 4,383; Smith, Republican, Ninth district, 2,612; Nelson, Republican, Fifth district, 3,888. The returns from the Second, Third and Fifth districts are incomplete, and later returns will increase the majorities. The Legislature, as made up this morning, stands: Senate—Republicans, 31; Democrats, 10; Independent and Greenback, 3. House—Republicans, 76; Democrats, 26; Independent, 3.

Complexion of Wisconsin's Legislature.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., November 9.—The returns for the State Legislature are complete, showing the following complexion of the Senate: Nineteen Republicans and 14 Democrats; a Democratic gain of 4. The Assembly stands: 27 Democrats, 15 Democrats, 2 Trades Assembly, and 1 Independent; a Republican loss of 12. The Republican majority on joint ballot is 9. The First Congressional district is still in doubt, and is claimed by both parties. The majority of the other districts is as follows: Second—Republican, 1,000; Third—Republican, 1,000; Fourth—Republican, 1,000; Fifth—Republican, 1,000; Sixth—Republican, 1,000; Seventh—Republican, 1,000; Eighth—Republican, 1,000; Ninth—Republican, 1,000; Tenth—Republican, 1,000; Eleventh—Republican, 1,000; Twelfth—Republican, 1,000; Thirteenth—Republican, 1,000; Fourteenth—Republican, 1,000; Fifteenth—Republican, 1,000; Sixteenth—Republican, 1,000; Seventeenth—Republican, 1,000; Eighteenth—Republican, 1,000; Nineteenth—Republican, 1,000; Twentieth—Republican, 1,000; Twenty-first—Republican, 1,000; Twenty-second—Republican, 1,000; Twenty-third—Republican, 1,000; Twenty-fourth—Republican, 1,000; Twenty-fifth—Republican, 1,000; Twenty-sixth—Republican, 1,000; Twenty-seventh—Republican, 1,000; Twenty-eighth—Republican, 1,000; Twenty-ninth—Republican, 1,000;
